Pupil ~ School Agreement

Together we take pride in making a positive contribution to our school and the wider community.

I help to keep the school clean, healthy and attractive.

I look after our school and school property.

I make visitors and new members of our school community welcome.

I give my ideas to help make Ripple Primary School and the local area even better than it already is.

To have my contribution valued.

To be given feedback on what I am doing and what I need to do to move forward.

By signing this agreement, you are acknowledging your commitment to our School Mission Statement and your responsibilities and entitlements in line with it.
